

MOTHER EARTH BOTTLES

Connecting with the Divine through nature.

What Is A Mother Earth Bottle?

In the long winter months, it can be hard to connect with our Divine Mother, which is why I created these bottles - as a way to bring the outside in. With their lovely colors and subtle aromas, these bottles become more than just a pretty shelf item. Use the bottle as a sacred altar piece, in meditation, or to help balance your chakras. Or simply pop off the cork to breathe in the soothing scents for an instant calming effect.

Each item inside has metaphysical energies to help you live a balanced, healthy, and grounded life. The four elements and seven chakras are represented within, as well as a balance of feminine, masculine, and androgynous energies.

Botanicals, wood, and herbs are all-natural, responsibly sourced, and free of artificial fragrances. Most are collected from my garden and foraging excursions. Many of the agates I have collected from Lake Superior and tumbled at home.

There are a variety of themes, each with different herbs, flowers, and rocks, hand-selected to promote specific energies. They are then wrapped three times with hemp twine and a little silver charm. Each bottle is lovingly made with intention, blessings, and a little bit of magic.
